SUBJECT.

Re proposed feeding arrangements for the pupils studying Vedas in the Sri Chamarajeswaraswami temple at Chamarajnagar

From

The Deputy Commissioner, Mysore District

Letter No. 89, Dated 21st August 1907.

Subject No 366

It was represented in the Dasara Representative Assembly meeting of 1906, that ~~access~~ H. H the late Maharaja Krishnaraja Wodeir Bahadur III had provided for the teaching of Vedashastras in the Chamarajeswaraswami temple, but that owing to want of arrangements for feeding, pupils did not come forward to receive instruction. It was therefore prayed that the large amount of savings of the Sri Chamarajeswara swami temple might be kept in the Savings Bank and the interest accruing thereon utilised for feeding those pupils who were taught Vedashastras. The Deputy Commissioner of the Mysore District was thereupon requested to report as to what the real wants were in this respect.

The Deputy Commissioner's report is now received. In it, he states that the Amildar reports that a Siva Koota was formerly attached to the Sri Chamarajeswara Swami temple, but that during the revision of the Jasdik Patti of the Institution in 1898, the Swakoota was directed to be stopped and a sum of Rs 12-8-0 per mensem was sanctioned for the supply of provisions. Out of this amount, Rs 9/- are stated to be paid to some two individuals in lieu of provisions. The Amildar further reports that Veda shastras were being taught at Chamarajnagar under the gracious orders of H.H. the late Maharaja Krishnaraja Wodeiar Bahadur III and that there are at present 3 teachers under the designation of Sthapakas (not 7/- each) for teaching the Rig Veda and the Sama Vedas and that there are in and around the Chamarajnagar town, many students evincing a desire to be taught the Vedashastras. He therefore recommends that the saving of Rs 3-8-0 now being effected out of the sum Rs 12-8-0 referred to above together with the savings of Rs 57/- on account of the death of some Nehimidars and of Rs 37/- per mensem on account of the introduction of the new Shekdari scheme into the temple main villages, thus aggregating in all Rs 45 odd, may be utilised for the feeding of pupils who are to receive tuition in the Vedashastras, Rs 40/- being used for feeding and Rs 5/- being paid to the cook.

Note contd.

In the above mentioned draft, information was called for from the Deputy Commissioner, as to when the new Shekdari Scheme referred to by him was introduced into the temple inam villages and how it affected the expenditure of the temple. In reply, that Officer states that the Shekdari Scheme was introduced into the temple inam villages from the 1st August 1904, and that in pursuance of the remark made in the temple Jasdik Patti of 1898 (referred to in the note above) to the effect that, pending the introduction of the new Shekdari scheme, the establishment maintained for the temple inam villages should be treated as temporary, the cost of the establishment, viz Rs 37/- per mensem was brought under saving. The Deputy Commissioner further states that after the above mentioned scheme came into force a Shekdar has been appointed for the temple main ~~villages~~ villages which are 4 in number, as well as for the 8 other main villages, but that the cost of the establishment viz Rs 37/- ~~are~~ is not borne out of temple funds but is brought under savings

Submitted.

From the above it is clear that Rs 37 plus Rs 5 + Rs 3-8-0 or in all Rs 45-8-0 is available as savings in the temple Zaadik. Out of this, the Dy Comm: recommends that Rs 40-8-0 may be utilized for feeding the poor Students who study Vedas & Shastras, and Rs 5 paid to a cook ~~be~~ employed for the purpose.

I approve of the proposal made by the D C - which satisfies two conditions viz the encouragement of the Study of Veda Shastras and the feeding of the Brahmin pupils who will attend the Classes. The teachers are already there & doing no work in the teaching line for want of pupils. The funds of the Temple cannot be put to better use than in promoting Sanskrit learning as originally intended by the Royal Donor.

SUBJECT No 366.

Feeding arrangement for pupils who receive teaching in Vedasastras.

Messrs. Narasimaiya, Chamrajnagar Municipality; Venkatramaiya and Siddagangappa, Chamrajnagar Taluk.

Summary of discussion.—The idol of Chamarajendraswami was consecrated by His Highness the late Maharaja Krishnaraja Wadayar Bahadur. Two hoblis were granted as Jahgir to the temple at Chamrajnagar, an Agraharam was built there and the place was named after the deity. When the tasdik patti of the temple was framed, provision was made for four persons for teaching Vedasastras. The Rigveda, the Yajurveda, Sahitya and Tarka are to be taught by these and they are even now receiving their respective allowances. As pupils at Chamrajnagar and in the neighbouring villages are not being fed, the instruction in vedas, etc., is not being imparted now. His Highness has established patasalas at Bangalore and Mysore and pupils from this distant part cannot join them on account of their family difficulties. The baraward of the temple indicates that it was the desire of His Highness the late Maharaja that Vedasastras should be taught at Chamrajnagar only. There is a sum of Rs. 59,003 at the credit of the Sri Chamarajeswara temple. It is prayed that this amount be kept in the Savings Bank and the interest accruing therefrom utilized for feeding those pupils who are taught Vedasastras.

Reply of Government.—Noted.
